

Gospel of John

Lent Bible Plan

Best Use

Individual quiet time and/or family worship

Nutritional Value

We fast during Lent, but we also feast. As you fast from meat, coffee, sweets, or Facebook, feast on God's word. On the back of this recipe card is a reading plan to take you through the Gospel of John.

Lent is a time to develop spiritual disciplines and there is no better way of growing as a follower of Jesus than reading the Bible.

Preparation

- Find a quiet time daily for prayer and reading the Bible if you do not already have one. Make it a routine.
- As a family, have a time of worship: to read the Bible, pray together and/or to sing. Family worship can be simple.

During Lent

1. The back of this recipe card will take you all the way through the Gospel of John, starting on Ash Wednesday and finishing on Holy Saturday, the day before Easter Sunday.

40 Days with John

The forty days of Lent are symbolic of Jesus' time in the wilderness before he began his ministry. Even though Jesus was tempted by Satan, he did not sin. Jesus is perfect. We are not. Lent reminds us of our shortcomings and sin. We confess and ask for forgiveness. Finally, we remember the cross of Christ, the death of our perfect Savior for us.

As you begin reading, reflect on the reason John exclaims he wrote his account, “Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name” (John 20:30-31).
